Picture This?

Isaiah 1:1-19 NIV

1.) What impacted you the most about Pastor Terry's sermon this week? Share something that you learned/heard that you hadn't known prior to his sermon.

b.) Read Isaiah chapters 1-5 and reflect on any thoughts that come to mind that applies to the world we live in today.

c.) What are some applications from these chapters that can help us reach those who are experiencing pain, injustice, and/or oppression?

2.) Pastor Terry spoke on Isaiah 1:17 "Learn to do right; seek justice. Defend the oppressed. Take up the cause of the fatherless; plead the case of the widow." He challenged us to move from indifference to getting involved with specifically reading this verse. How does that verse apply to getting involved?

b.) What are some ways we can seek, defend, encourage, and plead for those who are in pain and/or experiencing oppression and injustice?

3. In closing, Pastor Terry asked that our church, elders, home groups, and discipleship groups begin discussions how we can move in our community to help those who are hurting. In your position(s), what advice and our ideas would you have for our church and the Church as a whole?
