

5. In the message this week, we heard about “imitation” and “cheap” objects that are placed in our lives to hopefully get in between our marriages. If you feel lead, share with your group what some of those items may be or have been in your marriage?

b) Why is this such a powerful strategy for Satan to use against us? Why would he go to such great lengths to cause a Husband and Wife to be attracted to “imitation” and “cheap” objects?

6. In reflecting on Ephesians 5 on how to “Walk in Love”, Paul, the author of the letter, describes some ways to stay on the path of love. What are some of those ways that he describes? How can we apply those to our daily lives?

7. Our challenge for this week was, “Our mission is submission.” (Refer to Ephesians 5:21) What ways this week can you make sure you put your spouse first? What do you need to do to make submission your mission?
