Back to Basics

Romans 6:1-4

1. As you reflect on the message, what one principle or insight stands out as being particularly helpful, insightful, or difficult to grasp?

2. What is the biggest event you have celebrated in front of family and friends? Why did you choose to celebrate with them?

b. Why was it important to celebrate with people that you love?

Digging deeper

3. Read Romans 6:12-14. From the reading, what parts are cause for celebration and what parts are to hold accountability? Explain your answers.

b. Pastor Terry talked about our old identity that is found in Adam and the celebration of our new identity in Christ. Why is it important to still have people in our lives to hold us accountable?

c. What does it look like to be held accountable or to hold someone else accountable?

Application

4. If you have been baptized, what was your experience and how has it affected your life?

If you haven't, is it the next step in your faith journey? If yes, let your group leader know.
